Hi authors, I am going to accept the remaining edits and send this to BCs, OGC, and RD for final review in the next 30 minutes or so. Could you please save and exit the document so we don't get any conflicts?

Morning, I've carried over OGC's comments to the current memo. There are not too many. Heads up: They would like to see the memo again. Let's plan to cc them when we send to BCs today.

I've reviewed them as well. Looks good. Will you please accept those edits?
I'm trying to get mine wrapped up, too, for you to review. I'll let you know as soon as I'm finished.

I've also reached out to OGC. Angela says she'll be finished by 3:30p and Erin is just getting started.

Hey Rebecca,
I think your edits to the impacts of the production cap are solid and address the reviewer comments well.
Thanks!

Thanks, Lindsey.

I have addressed what I thought was the main BAB edit requested by reviewers. I would like another pair of eyes to review to make sure my logic is sound. Since there are more SIAB edits to go, I am holding on the review of the summary and conclusions, which I can revisit before the end of today or tomorrow. The SIAB edits and responses so far look okay to me.

Hi Monisha, OGC has not yet responded. I'll send a reminder now. BEAD and RD reviewers requested additional time and so authors are just beginning to address comments today. Initially we had hoped to have edits completed by COB today. I'm not sure about BAB edits, but SIAB edits will likely not be ready for BC review until tomorrow morning. Rebeccah/Jeana, thoughts?

All – is the document ready for BC review? Has OGC responded? If not, we may remind them to review. Thank you.

Hi, I did get my comments/suggestions into the document late last week. Please let me know if you want to discuss. The main point I would like to make is the importance of transparency. You need to provide the reader with all the information necessary to replicate your work. Provide the data you used on the states' citrus area as a proportion of US total, the numbers for imports, etc. If the reader can replicate your work, they are more likely to trust it.

Hi everyone,

Here is a link to the current aldicarb memo, dated 28Dec2020. BEAD reviewers, thank you for your previous comments. They have been incorporated. RD and OGC reviewers, we look forward to your feedback. Erin and Alyssa, you were the recommended OGC reviewers for this memo, and we also wanted to note that Angela has reviewed previous iterations of this document.

Comments will be discussed this Wednesday, December 30 at 9:30am.

Many thanks,
Lindsey, Rebeccah, and Jeana
